

Figure 3-3.—Primary moist forests are typically composed of many small trees beneath a canopy of a few large ones.